Felicitation to Pratibha Biswas (Barua) Noted and senior citizen of Gauripur

Pratibha Biswas (Barua), a senior citizen of Gauripur, was recently honored by P.B. College Gauripur as part of a scheme to felicitate notable local citizens. She has lived through more than 80 years of life and holds a significant place in the community. Pratibha is the daughter of Raja Prakritish Ch. Barua and Malatilata Barua, and her childhood was steeped in royal splendor and she was the onlooker of its decay.

Her father, renowned as Asia's foremost elephant catcher (Mahut), left a lasting impression on her with tales of his remarkable life. Pratibha is also the younger sister of Padmashree Dr. Pratima Barua Pandey, a celebrated folk singer. She witnessed firsthand Pratima's rise to fame in the world of folk music.

In recognition of her contributions and her unique position in the community's history, P.B. College Gauripur felicitated Pratibha Biswas (Barua) with traditional honors including a Jaapi (traditional Assamese hat), a bouquet, a saul, and a phulam gamocha (a traditional Assamese towel). This ceremony served as a mark of respect and honor for her enduring presence and contributions to the cultural tapestry of Gauripur.

7 days NSS Camp (To Create awareness on Swachh Bharat, AIDs, Gender Issues etc.)

The NSS Unit of the college, in collaboration with UBA (Unnat Bharat Abhiyan), organized a 7-day NSS camp aimed at addressing youth not in formal education. The camp took place from March 25, 2023, to March 31, 2023. During this period, the NSS Unit visited schools and villages to survey the number of youth not enrolled in formal education. This initiative aligns with the national program by the Ministry of Youth Affairs and Sports, Government of India, targeting youth aged 15 to 29 years who are deprived of formal education and regular employment. The 7-day NSS camp, under the leadership of Dr. Shambhu Pandey, focused on visiting selected villages and engaging with villagers of all age groups. The camp included small group meetings addressing various topics such as cleanliness, hygiene, AIDS awareness, and gender-related issues. The objective was to interact with the community, raise awareness, and facilitate discussions that promote social awareness and responsibility among villagers.

Free Coaching Classes

The Department of Mathematics at the college has launched a commendable initiative by offering free coaching classes for competitive examinations. These classes are aimed at benefiting the college's fifth and sixth semester students, as well as alumni, along with interested members of the local community. The primary focus of these coaching classes is to prepare students for third-grade government positions and jobs in banks and post offices.

The initiative was collaboratively undertaken with support from other departments such as Economics, English, Assamese, and Political Science. This collaboration ensures a comprehensive curriculum tailored to the requirements of various job examinations. Classes are scheduled twice a week after 3 PM, accommodating the schedules of working students.

Dr. Abu Taher Mollah, the Head of the Mathematics Department and convener of the coaching classes, has organized a structured routine and established a Whatsapp group to facilitate communication among participants. This initiative underscores the department's commitment to fostering educational opportunities and community engagement through targeted skill development.

Cleanliness Drive in the college campus and Srimanta Sankardev M.E.School, Charakbari Gauripur

On June 6, 2023, the NSS (National Service Scheme) and NCC (National Cadet Corps) units of P.B. College, Gauripur, organized a cleanliness program with students participating actively. The initiative involved cleaning not only the college campus but also extending efforts to Srimanta Sankardev ME School in Charakbari, Gauripur. Students enthusiastically engaged in cleaning activities, ensuring both environments were tidied and maintained. This initiative not only promoted cleanliness but also fostered a sense of civic responsibility among the participants. It underscored the importance of community service and environmental stewardship within the educational institution's framework. The convener of NSS, Dr. Sambhu Pandey, and the ANO (Associate NCC Officer) of the NCC unit, Dr. Taybul Islam Mollah, led by example by joining the cleanliness drive alongside other dedicated faculty members. Their participation not only demonstrated leadership but also encouraged a collaborative effort in maintaining cleanliness both within the college campus and at Sri Manta Sankardev ME School in Charakbari, Ward no III, Gauripur. Their involvement highlighted the importance of community service and active participation in such initiatives, setting a positive example for students and fostering a sense of responsibility towards the environment and community.
